Autumn trees not only provide us with some of the most spectacular color of any season, but they also share with us some of their finest yields in the form of new crop apples and pears. Enjoy these delicious and beautiful apples and pears raised on the finest farms using organic growing practices. Celebrate Autumn – choose organic apples and pears!