

meet the grower

Deer Creek Heights Ranch Home of Buck Brand Citrus • Porterville, CA

Lisle Babcock, and his wife, Mary Lou, guarantee all of their fruit is fresh-picked and cleaned with a horse-hair brushes, bringing out all of it's natural waxes and flavors.

Citrus Farming is Home Grown

Nestled in the foothills of the San Joaquin Valley is Deer Creek Heights Ranch, a unique citrus farm owned and operated by Lisle and Mary Lou Babcock. It is known for its 58 varieties of organic citrus, pomegranates, and dragon fruit.

Focused on Fresh

Deer Creek Heights fruit is prepared simply with a gentle brushing and coating with the fruit's own natural wax. No artificial wax or fungicides are used. They are packed only when fully ripe and ready to eat, for exceptionally fresh, vibrant flavors. The fruit is picked to order and delivered within days of harvest.

Variety is the Spice of Limes... and Oranges, Lemons, and Grapefruits

Finger limes, Sweet limes, Markut limes, Yuzu lemons, Mango blood oranges, Cara Cara Red navel oranges, and Mandarinquats are just a few of the unusual and delicious varieties they offer. All are available through Albert's.

Albert's
fresh · produce